

Who this program is not for

- Families involved with CFS
- High conflict cases where one parent will not consent to participation.
- Children who do not consent to participate
- Children under 7 years of age
- Children who have been interviewed in the last year for any assessments or court proceedings
- Families involved in outstanding criminal matters